Milano

To achieve the authentic effect of natural timber in your bathroom tiling, the Milano timber-look porcelain tile is the choice for you. Milano is a long plank shaped rectangular style with a timber impression which must be seen to be believed. Milano is a favourite for bathroom applications because its realistic natural timber look won't degrade over time unlike real wood.

Milano has answered the demand of interior designers and home renovators alike with an extensive collection of 4 woodgrain colourways: Aspen, Forest, Limed Oak and Walnut.

To make installation easy, Amber's Milano timber-look tile comes in the rectangular 145x750mm plank format, in a depth of 10mm. No matter how you're planning to use the Milano tile, you'll be delighted when you see the realistic end result.
